

Midwinter SERIES POPULAR ENTERTAINMENTS Jefferson Hotel AUDITORIUM

Encouraged by the patronage accorded our "Mid-Summer Series of Concerts" held in the Horse Show Building, we have completed arrangements for this "Mid-Winter Series" of popular entertainments to be given in the splendid New Auditorium of the Jefferson Hotel.

A Season Ticket, including reserved seat, for the entire series of eight entertainments if purchased before Oct. 1, will cost but three dollars ($3). On October 1st, should any tickets remain unsold, they will be advanced in price to $4. The seating capacity of the hall is comparatively limited and immediate action will be desirable.

Eight Splendid Entertainments at Popular Prices--See Coupon Below

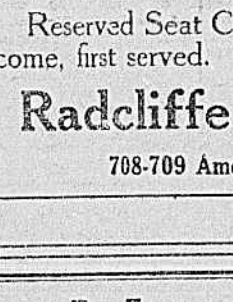

2. Thursday, Nov. 23,
Hawthorne Musical Club,
Presenting many musical novelties

1. Friday, November 8th,
Commonwealth Ladies' Orchestra, of Boston,
Assisted by Evangeline Hiltz, Soprano, and Ashton Lewis, Violinist

3. Monday, Dec. 9,
Opie Read,
The famous raconteur, journalist and playwright.

4. Monday, Dec. 30,
DURNO, The Mysterious
An evening of magic, music and mystery.

Reserved Seat Chart now open at our office. First come, first served.
Radcliffe Lyceum Bureau,
708-709 American National Bank Building.

5. Thursday, January 9,
The Whitney Brothers Quartette

Conceded to be the best male quartette now before the American public.

6. Friday, January 24,
Captain Richmond Pearson Hobson,
Congressman from Alabama.

"The Anglo-Saxons--the Bulwark of the World's Political Liberty."

This Coupon is Worth $1

IF USED BEFORE OCTOBER 1st.

Fill in your name and address, stating number of season tickets you will want, and mail to us at once.

Radcliffe Lyceum Bureau, 708 American National Bank Building, Richmond, Va.

Gentlemen--Please enroll my name for _____ season tickets, at $3.00 each, for the series of concerts and entertainments to be given in the Jefferson Hotel Auditorium, under your direction, during the season of 1907-1908. I agree to call at your office and pay for tickets not later than October 1st.

Signed.....

No..... Street.

Seats may be reserved for entire season as soon as tickets are paid for.

News of the Suburbs

Fairmount News.

Mrs. M. V. Ennis left a few days ago for Portland, Me., as a State representative of the Daughters of Liberty of Virginia, to attend the national conference, which will be held in that State the coming week.

Miss Alma Ennis is visiting Mrs. Helen Mills, in Goochland county.

Mrs. Mary McDowell, of Twenty-second Street, who has been spending some time with her step-son, Mr. Andrew McDowell, of Portsmouth, has returned.

Mr. A. C. Burton and his bride, who was formerly Miss Elsie Kock, have returned from Washington, and are located at 1220 North Twenty-seventh Street, where they will be glad to receive their many friends.

Mrs. Thomas Morris, daughter Isabel and son Stuart, of Twenty-first Street, are the guests of Mrs. S. G. Midkiff, of 614 Twenty-ninth Street, Newport News.

Rev. C. C. Cox, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Wooden, of the Turnpike.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Timberlake, of Washington, D. C., who have been attending the exposition, and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Ennis during the past week, have gone to Caroline county to visit relatives before returning home.

Willie Crouch, of Twenty-third Street, is spending some time with his aunt, Mrs. Neal, in Petersburg, Va.

Mr. Thomas Peyton Gentry, of Charles City county, was a recent guest of his nieces, Mrs. Ella R. Rainey and Mrs. Willie Nuckolls.

Miss Lillian Alston, of Ohio, has returned after visiting Mrs. J. T. England.

Miss Ada Burton, of West Virginia, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Stella Wade, of this vicinity.

Mrs. Rosa Marable and her daughter, Miss Daisy Marable, have returned from Charlottesville, Va., where they were the guests of Mrs. Johnson for several weeks.

Mrs. P. J. Sinnott, who has been quite sick for the past month, has left for Baltimore to visit her sister, Mrs. Hubbard, formerly of this place. She will also visit in the mountains, where she hopes to be benefited by the change.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Patterson, of Madison, Md., who have been spending some time at the seashore and the exposition, have returned.

Miss Kate Meyers and her sister, Miss Ella Meyers, of Charlottesville, are visiting their cousin, Miss Wheat.

Mr. Frank Marable has returned from a visit to relatives in Charlottesville.

Mrs. Florence Evans and her daughter Ruth, of Steelton, Pa., who have been visiting her brother, Harry Kline, of Twenty-second Street, are now visiting other relatives in the West End.

Mr. Joseph Adams, formerly of this city, but now of Norfolk, Va., was the guest of Mrs. Mary Lawrence, of Twentieth Street, during the week.

Mrs. C. E. Taylor, of Clifton Forge, who has been spending some time with relatives in this vicinity, has returned.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Smith, of Rocky Mount, N. C., are spending some time with Mr. Smith's brother, James Goddard, and children, of Fluvanna county, are guests of Mrs. Goddard's parents.

Mrs. Eddie Hubbard, formerly of Richmond, but now of Baltimore, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Bonnie Gallagher, of Twentieth Street, has returned, accompanied by her little son Eddie.

Miss Canine Carr left a few days ago for Beaver Dam, Hanover county, to visit her sister and to attend the camp meetings which are now being carried on at that place.

Johns Walker, of Baltimore, is the guest of his brother here.

Samuel Weisiger, of Barboursville, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Edna French, on the Turnpike.

Mr. C. A. Gormelman, of Fairmount, together with the other members of the Mobjack Fishing Club, have been having a high old time at the exposition and other seashore resorts. The club consists of the following well-known men of this city: Messrs. T. M. Hundley, R. H. Anderson, A. P. Pohlig, St. George Cook, P. C. Carr, Edward G. Schmidt, S. R. Ford, E. G. Snead, G. Quarles, R. S. Whitlock, R. H. Hawks, C. H. Hagan, Charles Gormelman, Eugene Brauer, A. Saunders, C. H. Wagner, Jack Beveridge, C. A. Watkins, T. H. Phillips, Joseph W. Hundley, L. O. Miller and O. A. Hawkins.

Miss Louise Lawrence is having a delightful visit with friends in Amherst county. She will also visit in Lynchburg, Va., before returning home.

Barth Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Harding, who have been visiting at West Point, have returned.

Mr. W. T. Major, of North Avenue, who has been visiting his wife in Amelia, has returned.

Harvey Goddard, of Monticello Avenue, is visiting his uncle at Laurel Hill, Hanover county.

Mrs. Edwin Cain has returned to her home, in Monticello Avenue, from Ocean View, where she has been staying for several weeks.

Mrs. S. Lee Sangster and children, of Burke, Fairfax county, Va., are the guests of her mother, Mrs. Flora Bannan, in Barton Avenue.

Mr. George Allen Rader, of North Avenue, has returned from a two-weeks' visit to friends in Jeffersonville, Ind.

Mrs. Florence Evans and her daughter Ruth, of Steelton, Pa., who have been visiting her brother, Harry Kline, of Twenty-second Street, are now visiting other relatives in the West End.

Mr. Joseph Adams, formerly of this city, but now of Norfolk, Va., was the guest of Mrs. Mary Lawrence, of Twentieth Street, during the week.

Mrs. C. E. Taylor, of Clifton Forge, who has been spending some time with relatives in this vicinity, has returned.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Smith, of Rocky Mount, N. C., are spending some time with Mr. Smith's brother, James Goddard, and children, of Fluvanna county, are guests of Mrs. Goddard's parents.

Mrs. Eddie Hubbard, formerly of Richmond, but now of Baltimore, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Bonnie Gallagher, of Twentieth Street, has returned, accompanied by her little son Eddie.

Miss Canine Carr left a few days ago for Beaver Dam, Hanover county, to visit her sister and to attend the camp meetings which are now being carried on at that place.

Johns Walker, of Baltimore, is the guest of his brother here.

Samuel Weisiger, of Barboursville, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Edna French, on the Turnpike.

Mr. C. A. Gormelman, of Fairmount, together with the other members of the Mobjack Fishing Club, have been having a high old time at the exposition and other seashore resorts. The club consists of the following well-known men of this city: Messrs. T. M. Hundley, R. H. Anderson, A. P. Pohlig, St. George Cook, P. C. Carr, Edward G. Schmidt, S. R. Ford, E. G. Snead, G. Quarles, R. S. Whitlock, R. H. Hawks, C. H. Hagan, Charles Gormelman, Eugene Brauer, A. Saunders, C. H. Wagner, Jack Beveridge, C. A. Watkins, T. H. Phillips, Joseph W. Hundley, L. O. Miller and O. A. Hawkins.

Miss Louise Lawrence is having a delightful visit with friends in Amherst county. She will also visit in Lynchburg, Va., before returning home.

of the church, to succeed the Rev. D. K. Waltham, who has resigned on account of not feeling able to conduct three services on Sunday. Much regret is expressed on the Heights at the resignation of Dr. Waltham, who is much beloved, not only by his own flock, but by all the other denominations.

Mrs. W. H. Kidwell, who has been visiting in West Point, has returned.

Mrs. Frank H. Nott and children, who have been visiting her sister, Mrs. Rogers, in Creve, Va., have returned.

Mr. Jack Beveridge, of North Avenue, has left for an outing at Old Point, Cape Charles and the exposition.

Miss Ethel Saunders, who has been visiting friends in Fredericksburg, Va., has returned.

Mrs. W. D. Knudson, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. G. Cosby, in Virginia Avenue, has returned to her home in Begonia, N. J.

Starr Hall, who has been visiting relatives in Washington and Maryland, has returned.

Miss Lillie Taylor, of Amelia Court-house, who has been visiting her aunt in Miller Avenue, has returned.

Mr. John Turner, who has been visiting his uncle, of Monticello Avenue, has returned to Norfolk, Va.

Mrs. L. E. Thivault, of Winter Park, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. M. E. Strother, is now visiting in Madison.

Mrs. Isham K. Briggs and son, Jack Briggs, have returned to their home in Berryville, Va., after a visit to her sister, Mrs. W. G. Cosby, of Virginia Avenue.

Mrs. L. O. Wendenburg and daughter, Miss Jessie Wendenburg, of Roberts Street, have left for Columbia, S. C., to spend some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ly. Brane.

Miss Annie Kuyk, who has been visiting relatives in Dendron, Surry county, Va., has returned.

Mrs. L. R. Hall, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is the guest of her son, Mr. H. S. Hall.

Mrs. J. P. Haupt and daughter, Miss Naomi Haupt, of Virginia Avenue, have returned from a lengthy stay with relatives in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Frank Johnson, of Fluvanna county, who has been visiting his aunt in North Avenue, has returned.

Miss Lillian Eubank has left for Ashland, Va., to be the guest of Miss Julia Delarue.

Mrs. J. P. Stringer, who has been spending the past two weeks visiting friends and relatives in Lunenburg county, will return this week.

Miss Lanetta M. Goodwyn, who has been visiting relatives in Monticello Avenue, has returned to Nottoway county.

Mr. James O'Bannon has returned to his home in Barton Avenue from a pleasant trip to Norfolk, Va.

Mrs. J. J. Harvey and daughter, Mrs. W. M. Luck, of Virginia Avenue, have left for Ocean Grove to spend a couple of weeks, and from there will visit her daughter, Mrs. Blakeley, of New Jersey.

Miss Louise Ramsdell has returned to her home in North Avenue from a lengthy stay with relatives in the West.

Mr. E. H. Shangle, of Ithaca, N. Y., is visiting his sister, Mrs. Flora O'Bannon, in Barton Avenue.

Miss Katherine Anderson, of Reidsville, Va., who has been spending some time at the exposition, is now the guest of Mrs. Julian C. Anderson, of Miller Avenue. She will leave in a few days for a visit to friends in Fredericksburg.

Miss Louise Moores, of Luck Avenue, will leave in a few days to be the guest of relatives in Charles City.

Mrs. F. M. Connors, who has been quite sick at her home in Luck Avenue, is improving.

Mr. E. R. Brown, of Bedford City, Va., who has been visiting friends in Miller Avenue, has returned to his home.

Frank Kuyk, who has been in Nottoway county visiting in the home of Judge C. F. Goodwyn, has returned.

Mr. Charles Tucker, of Washington, has returned after a pleasant visit to his friend, Mr. James Smith, of North Avenue.

Miss Nellie Wilson, of Emporia, is the guest of her aunt in Miller Avenue.

Mrs. Richard Anderson, of Miller Avenue, is visiting relatives in Matthews county.

Miss Hattie Morrison, of King William county, who has been visiting Mrs. W. C. Overby, of Virginia Avenue, has returned.

Robert Eubank, of North Avenue, is visiting relatives in Nelson and Buckingham counties.

Mrs. C. C. Anderson and son Julian, of Miller Avenue, are visiting in Matthews county.

Mrs. H. W. King, who has been visiting in Louisiana, has returned.

Mrs. C. B. Williams and Master Francis Williams are spending several weeks with friends at Millboro and Hot Springs.

Mr. W. R. Yost, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. J. C. Ruth, of Illinois, has returned.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Wilson and children, of Idaho, are the guests of Mrs. Wilson's sister, Mrs. Flora O'Bannon, of Barton Avenue.

Mrs. J. P. Haupt has returned to his home in Virginia Avenue from a pleasant visit to relatives in Philadelphia.

Mr. George Wilson, of Chattanooga, Tenn., is the guest of Mrs. J. P. O'Bannon in Barton Avenue.

and Mrs. Harry Thompson have returned to their home at Pensacola, Fla.

Miss Kate Dunkel has returned to her home on Hanover Avenue, after a visit to her sister in Wilmington, N. C.

Mrs. J. Irvin Brown, of Charleston, S. C., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. C. Burton, No. 404 Cedar Street.

Misses Lena and Annie Lee Bowles are visiting relatives in Goochland county.

Miss Lillian H. Forder, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mrs. Kate Stiegelwald and her daughter, Miss Clara M. Stiegelwald, of New York, have returned from a visit to Chief and Mrs. Louis Werner.

After visiting Mrs. Alfred T. Mann, on Hanover Avenue, Mrs. James F. Walker and her daughter, Miss Jessie W. Walker, have returned to Gallipolis, Ohio.

Mrs. Dixie Mayo, of Western Missouri, is spending some time with the family of her brother-in-law, Mr. William P. Mayo, No. 404 Cedar Street.

Mrs. William A. Hutchison has returned from spending a week with Mrs. Everett Mallory at Ashland, Va., while attending the Tidewater Convention of the Christian Church.

Miss Helen Martin, of Charlottesville, who has been visiting her sister at Eastville and attending the Jamestown Exposition, left Richmond Saturday for her home, after visiting her aunt, Mrs. Virginia S. Lewis, No. 1214 Hanover Avenue.

Mr. William Franklin Baker, of No. 312 North Meadow Street, has as his guest, Mr. Harry Shook, of Mobile, Ala.

Mrs. Horace Baker spent a few days in Charlottesville, Va., last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac B. Valden left Monday for Jefferson Park Hotel, near Charlottesville.

Miss Mary E. Lewis has returned to Richmond from a delightful visit to friends and relatives in Washington, D. C., and in Baltimore, Md.

Master William Cameron Young has returned from a two weeks' visit to the Jamestown Exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin A. Ruffin and little daughter Allene are visiting relatives in Chester, Va.

Mrs. Frances W. Spencer and her daughter, Miss Anna Spencer, have returned to their home in Huntington, W. Va., from a seven weeks' visit to Mrs. Alfred T. Mann, No. 1214 Hanover Avenue.

Mrs. A. C. Bodford, of Ivy Avenue, spent several days in Norfolk, Va., last week with her nieces.

Dr. Charles A. Elliott, from Laurens, S. C., is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace W. Elliott, No. 2501 Kensington Avenue.

Mrs. Sylvan F. Guiguenheimer and her son Fred have returned to their home on Ivy Avenue from spending several weeks at Greenwood, Alabama county.

Mrs. H. W. Elliott and her daughter, Miss Louise Elliott, returned to their home on Kensington Avenue Wednesday from Fluvanna county, where they have spent the last three weeks with relatives.

Miss Annie Link, of No. 2519 Park Avenue, has returned from Louisiana county, where she and her mother, Mrs. Fannie G. Link, have been spending some time with relatives.

Miss Annie Dyson has returned to her home at Peakes, Hanover county, from a visit to her brother, Mr. Merton Howell Dyson, No. 2517 Park Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip A. Fore and their son and daughter, Winfree and Blanche Christian Fore, are summing at the Ellison Hotel, Crozet, Va.

Mr. W. Bland Gregory has returned to his home, No. 2517 Park Avenue, after spending a month with relatives in Amelia county.

Mrs. Valentine Scheld and Miss Lilly Manheim, of New York, and Misses Mamie and Elizabeth Gellner, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are the guests of Chief and Mrs. Louis Werner.

Mrs. T. A. Gebhardt and Miss Ruth Werner are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Burton. Mrs. Gebhardt's parents, in King and Queen county.

Mrs. Edward Shafer and her son, Master Allen Shafer, have returned to their home, No. 1817 Park Avenue, from spending a month at Longdale, Bath county.

Mrs. John F. Denty, of No. 1222 Hanover Avenue, has returned to Richmond from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Luther A. Denty, at Fairfax Court-house, Va.

Miss Florence Baker left Saturday for Powhatan county to attend a house party.

Mrs. Virginia C. Lewis left Wednesday afternoon to visit her old home at Lester Manor and at West Point, Va.

Mr. James M. Hines, of New Bern, N. C., is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Albert S. Culppeper, No. 2505 Kensington Avenue.

Mr. Richard C. Watkins left Wednesday for Philadelphia and Pittsburg, Pa., to spend his vacation.

Mr. Watt's cousin, Miss Nellie Watt, of Liverpool, who is traveling in this country, is expected in Richmond soon as the guest of Mr. A. M. Watt and family. Miss Watt is the daughter of Commodore-Captain Watt, of the Cunard Line of steamers, who is now sailing the new vessel Lusitania.

East Richmond.

Mrs. A. F. Franck and daughter, Miss Clara Franck, visited Wednesday in West Point, where they were joined by Mr. Fred Franck.

Miss Georgia Wisman was a recent guest of the Misses Franck.

Messrs. Will Franck, Oscar Lohman, Louis Boschen and others gave a delightful hay ride from Richmond to the home of Mr. A. F. Franck Thursday evening, and spent a merry time. Music and dancing were kept up until a late hour, when refreshments were served. Those present were Misses Irene Lohman, Louise Pohlig, Rosa Slinger, Annie Lohman, Georgia Wisman, Minnie Hettzer, Mabel Burruss, Alvina Gormelman, Helen and Clara Franck, Oscar and Fred Lohman, Louis Boschen, Will Connor, George Wrenn, August Pohlig, James Smith, Clarke Wisman, Roy Harton, Archie Merseman and Will Franck.

George Burnham, grandson of the late Judge and Mrs. Horace Burnham, of "Aspen Shade," recently visited his boyhood home here, after an absence

ARREST YOUNG MAN, CHARGING HIM WITH BURGLARY.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ROANOKE, Va., August 24--Frank Moses, a young man of Bonanza, well connected, has been captured and charged with being the "rafter" who has been entering stores from the al-boys. He was caught early this morning attempting to rob a hardware, and testified as the young man who was seen robbing a drug store several months ago. He made desperate efforts to break out of jail, smashing one of the bars and taking off handcuffs that had been put on him. The young man was always neatly dressed, and went in good society.